

MY TRIP TO HONG KONG

March 23-28, 2016

In March I visited Hong Kong. In Hong Kong I saw an art show called the “Art Basel”. The “Art Basel” is a modern art show where art galleries from around the world show their artwork. I was excited to see lots of art from Japanese artists, such as Takashi Murakami’s film “Jellyfish Eyes”. I also went sightseeing while I was in Hong Kong. I went up Victoria Peaks on the tram. It was so steep! The view from the top was beautiful though. I also went to Macau, which was a part of Portugal until recently. Because of this, many signs are in Chinese and Portuguese, and it looks more similar to Europe than to China. I went on the Star Ferry at night to get a nice view of the city from the water. I had so much fun in Hong Kong! I can’t wait for my next adventure!
